Parents, Coaches, Spectators

The San Luis Valley Youth Sports has a no tolerance policy in which threats, harassment and/or physical or verbal abuse will not be accepted. Failure to act in a sportsmanlike manner will result in expulsion of game(s), possibly for the entire season. Any person(s) found violating this policy by harassing a player, coach, official or spectator will be asked to leave the premises immediately and it will also result in a loss of points from your team if the violation is severe enough, this may lead to the banning from any or all Parks Recreation sponsored events, and possibly involve the police department. Parents, and other nonparticipants are not allowed on the field/court THIS INCLUDES COACHES. Players acting in an unsportsmanlike manner will be sent to the sideline by the official and will sit out for the remainder of the game.
