We're entering 2023 with all the hopes and dreams that a new year brings. We had a terrific fall semester – good numbers, a lot of fun, new and old activities, and, of course, a lot of great food.

We are looking forward to spending Friday, January 13, with Center for Restorative Programs as they bring a day of learning to our team. Our goal at HVCC is to make sure everyone – adults and kiddos alike – feel welcome in our space. We never want to “send a child home” or ask someone not to attend our programs. We have an obligation to provide safety to all participants, but there is a lot we can do to ensure that we are creating the best space for fun and learning so that we all thrive at HVCC.

As our team grows and changes, so does our program. You'll see new activities, old activities with a new a learning goal, and new faces too. We are expanding our partnerships with Del Norte Schools to have teachers supporting Braintime, and you'll even get to see HVCC staff volunteering in the school. Learning and fun should never be exclusive, and we are going to continue to make sure to provide plenty of both at HVCC.

You can already find us supporting 7th – 12th grade homework and tutoring after school, Jocelyn Catterson is hosting an art club, and we hope you'll share some of your ideas with us as well.

We also have some fun partnership-opportunities coming up, so be sure to watch your HVCC news for more info on those – we will be attending the Gift of Reading Night at the school, Creede Theatre is bringing Ms. Joy back, and we are excited to attend a High School Basketball game with our small friends. Cheers to an amazing 2023!!

Important Dates:

- January 13th
No HVCC – staff training!
- January 18th
HVCC will be supporting “Gift of Reading” @ DNES
